It Came Upon the Midnight Clear

Willis

It came up - on the mid - night clear, that glori - ous song of old, from through the - clo - ven skies they come with peace - ful wings un - furled, and with the woes of sin and strife the world as suf - fered long; - be - lo! the days are haste - ning on, by pro - phets seen of old, when an - gels bend - ing near the Earth to touch their harps of gold; "Peace still their heaven - ly mu - sic floats o'er all the wea - ry world; a - neath the heaven - ly hymn have rolled two thou - sand years of wrong; and with the ev - er - cir - cling years shall come the time fore - told, when on the Earth, good will to men, from heaven's - all gra - cious King." The bove its sad and low - ly plains they bend on hov - 'ring wing, and war - ring hu - man - kind hears not the tid - ings which they bring; O peace shall o - ver all the earth its an - cient splen - dors fling, and world of sol - emn still - ness lay to hear the an - gels sing. Still ev - er o'er its Ba - bel - sounds the bless - ed an - gels sing. Yet hush the noise and cease your strife and hear the an - gels sing! For all the world give back the song which now the an - gels sing.

1. 2.

Detailed description: The musical score is written in a single treble clef with a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a 4/4 time signature. It consists of eight staves of music. The first staff begins with a double bar line and repeat dots. The melody is primarily composed of quarter notes, with some eighth notes in the later sections. The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots, followed by two first endings (labeled '1.' and '2.') which lead to a final cadence.
